Mastek Partners with Zulekha Healthcare Group to Drive Digital Transformation with Oracle Fusion Cloud

Mumbai, India, 08th May 2025: Mastek (NSE: MASTEK; BSE: 523704), a trusted digital engineering and cloud transformation partner, today announced its strategic collaboration with Zulekha Healthcare Group. Mastek will deploy an extensive Oracle Fusion Cloud suite which closely integrates with Oracle Health (Cerner) system. This transformation aligns with Zulekha's vision of delivering "Patient First" healthcare while enhancing clinical workflows, operational efficiency, and fiscal agility.

Zulekha Healthcare Group, a UAE-based leading healthcare provider, aims to enhance financial oversight, streamline inventory and procurement processes, reduce manual interventions, strengthen compliance, and enable data-driven decision-making. It is now one of the largest private healthcare networks in the UAE, employing more than 2,500 personnel, including over 300 qualified doctors, 600+ staff nurses, and paramedical staff. The Group chose Mastek for its global reputation as a leading Oracle-recommended partner, backed by deep expertise and trusted capabilities in the healthcare sector. By leveraging AI, cloud technology, and interoperability frameworks, Mastek drives healthcare innovation for its clients.

As a leading Oracle Cloud partner with 1,500+ implementations across 40+ countries, 100+ industry-specific solutions, and a talent pool of 2,000+ skilled consultants, Mastek will implement a unified Oracle Fusion Cloud solution fully integrated with Zulekha Healthcare Group's Hospital Information System (HIS) and Revenue Cycle Management (RCM). Zulekha has 285 beds across its two hospitals, offering inpatient and outpatient care that spans a wide range of medical and surgical specialties. It also operates a smart medical fitness center offering services related to visa requirements, including medical assessments, vaccinations, occupational health cards, and embassy fitness certification issuances.

Managing Director at Zulekha Healthcare Group, Taher Shams, shares, "Our collaboration with Mastek marks a crucial juncture in our digital journey. By leveraging Oracle Fusion Cloud solutions and Mastek's healthcare digital transformation expertise, we aim to drive greater agility, strengthen decision-making, and enhance data security to deliver continuous excellence in our patient-first healthcare services."

"Leveraging Mastek's close working relationship with Oracle and deep healthcare domain expertise, we empower organizations like Zulekha Healthcare Group to achieve smarter, faster, and more patient-centric operations. We are committed to supporting their transformation journey and are excited to drive innovation and deliver measurable outcomes together." said Surya Nunna, Executive Vice President, AMEA, Mastek.
