

Mastek Strengthens its Board with the Appointment of Google Tech Leader Marc Berson

Mumbai, India; December 30, 2025: Mastek Inc, a step-down subsidiary of Mastek Limited (NSE: MASTEK; BSE: 523704), a global leader in AI-first, digital engineering and cloud transformation, announced the appointment of Marc Berson to its Board of Directors, effective January 1, 2026.

Based in the United States, Marc currently serves as the Head of Google Internal Systems (CIO). His appointment signals Mastek's commitment to deepening its North American footprint and integrating world-class Silicon Valley expertise into its strategic oversight.

Marc is a distinguished figure in the global CIO community. His career spans leadership roles at Gilead Sciences, HP, IBM, and Philips, where he spearheaded massive enterprise transformations. He was recognized by Inspire CIO as both a Super Global ORBIE Award Finalist in 2023 and Winner in 2024. His expertise bridges the gap between complex processes, systems, and cutting-edge digital innovation, making him a pivotal asset for Mastek's "Lead with AI" roadmap.

Umang Nahata, CEO of Mastek, added, "Marc brings a rare combination of deep technology insight and practitioner-led experience in navigating the complexities of global scale. His counsel will be invaluable as we solidify Mastek's position to lead with AI as the preferred partner for delivering best-in-class ROI to clients. By integrating his Silicon Valley perspective, we are better positioned to accelerate our mission of driving high-impact, AI-driven business outcomes for the modern enterprise."

Marc Berson added, "I am pleased to join the Mastek Board as the company accelerates its global growth and innovation agenda, having led large-scale technology transformations at organizations like Google, I see a clear alignment between Mastek's AI-first strategy and the evolving needs of the modern enterprise. I look forward to working with the Board and leadership team to help shape a future-ready roadmap that delivers lasting value for all stakeholders."

Marc holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance and International Business from Penn State University and a Master's in Project Management from George Washington University.
